

1. Monthly sales figures for August 2024

Below are the monthly sales figures for August 2024.

2. Notice regarding future disclosure

We aim to achieve sustainable growth over the medium to long term. We have previously disclosed monthly sales figures, but have decided to discontinue this practice with the next disclosure of September 2024 sales (scheduled to be announced on October 25, 2024). This is because monthly figures are short-term performance indicators that are not necessarily appropriate reflection of the growth and future potential of our business and may lead to misunderstanding.

Going forward, we will work to promote a better understanding of our company by strengthening the disclosure of information that contributes to a medium- to long-term perspective and improving the quality of the information we disclose.
