1. Overview of Business Results, etc.

(1) Overview of Business Results for the First Half of the Fiscal Year

For the first half of the fiscal year, the global economy continued to face uncertainty due to factors such as U.S. tariff policies, their impact on various countries, and unstable exchange rates. As a result, there was a slowdown in operations in major customer industries, particularly the automotive sector. However, demand in telecommunications, electronics, and electrical equipment sectors remained steady, especially in China and Asia.

In this economic environment, MISUMI Group is leveraging its unique Business MODEL, which encompasses manufacturing and distribution businesses. By advancing the global Business foundation supporting these operations, we contribute to industries related to automation demand, particularly the manufacturing industry, by meeting customers' needs for Reliable and Quick Delivery.

We continued to develop new businesses, including new products and services, by capitalizing on the robust business foundations in IT, production, and logistics that we have built over the years. We also made efforts to accurately capture customer demand by making use of our global network of sites However, in some regions, demand stagnation was affected by the tariff policies of the United States.

As a result, consolidated net sales reached \(\frac{\text{205},814\) million (3.9% year-over-year increase). In terms of profits, although there were positive effects such as increased volume from proprietary initiatives, ongoing expenditures related to measures for sustainable growth, the impact of exchange rates, and the inclusion of Fictiv Inc.'s performance within the scope of consolidation starting in July led to operating income of \(\frac{\text{\text{410},618}}{\text{million}}\) (16.1% decrease year-over-year), ordinary income of \(\frac{\text{\text{\text{20},397}}}{\text{million}}\) (19.1% decrease year-over-year), and interim net income attributable to parent company shareholders of \(\frac{\text{\text{413},997}}{\text{million}}\) (23.1% decrease year-over-year).

① Factory Automation (FA) Business

In the FA business, while capital investment demand in Japan remained sluggish, overseas regions generally performed well, driven by increased demand from proprietary initiatives such as capturing demand in China's telecommunications sector, as well as through meviy, the Economy Series, and D-JIT. Additionally, with Fictiv Inc.'s performance included in the consolidation from July, sales reached \(\frac{472}{743}\) million (8.8% increase year-over-year). Operating income, impacted by M&A-related expenses and the consolidation of Fictiv Inc., was \(\frac{48}{88},133\) million (29.7% decrease year-over-year).

② Die Components Business

In the Die Components business, growth in China and Asia helped offset weaker performance in other regions caused by sluggish demand in the automotive sector. However, sales did not reach the level of the same period last year, totaling \forall 42,573 million (0.6% decrease year-over-year), and operating income was \forall 4,177 million (8.7% decrease year-over-year).

③ VONA Business

VONA business is MISUMI Group's distribution segment, which sells manufacturing and automation-related equipment parts - including not only the MISUMI brand but also products from other companies - as well as indirect materials such as MRO (consumables). Performance remained strong, especially in China and Asia, with sales reaching ¥90,498 million (an increase of 2.4% year-over-year) and operating income totaling ¥7,307 million (an increase of 0.8% year-over-year).

(2) Overview of Financial Position for the First Half of the Fiscal Year

This was mainly attributable to a decrease of \(\frac{\text{\frac{45}}}{45,265\) million (-14.2%) in current assets due to a reduction of cash and deposits, an increase of \(\frac{\text{\frac{45}}}{50,771\) million (+152.5%) in intangible assets due to an increase in goodwill associated with the acquisition of subsidiary shares.
